

Water/Wastewater Treatment Plant Construction
Superintendents, Foremen and Pipe fitters

The Milnes Co., Inc., a general contractor operating in Northeast Pennsylvania and Southeast New York, is seeking qualified individuals to add to our water/wastewater construction team. We are currently seeking qualified superintendents, foremen and pipe fitters with experience in water/wastewater treatment plant process piping and equipment installation.

Superintendent Requirements:

- Must have 10+ years experience in water/wastewater treatment construction field.
- Must have 5+ years experience in supervising and executing water/wastewater treatment plant projects including process piping, equipment installation, testing, start-up, material procurement, daily report logging, safety documentation, and all other required means to run this type of work.
- Ability to read specifications and drawings.
- Ability to work with little direction.
- Good organizations skills.
- Good supervisory and communication skills.

Foreman & Pipe fitter Requirements:

- Must have 5+ years experience in the water/wastewater treatment construction field.
- Ability to read specifications and drawings.
- Good organization skills.
- Good communications skills.

All applicants must pass drug testing, must have a CDL medical card, and must be willing to travel.

For more information, please contact George Milnes at (570) 836-2145.